

Noah

and the

Cloud Kite

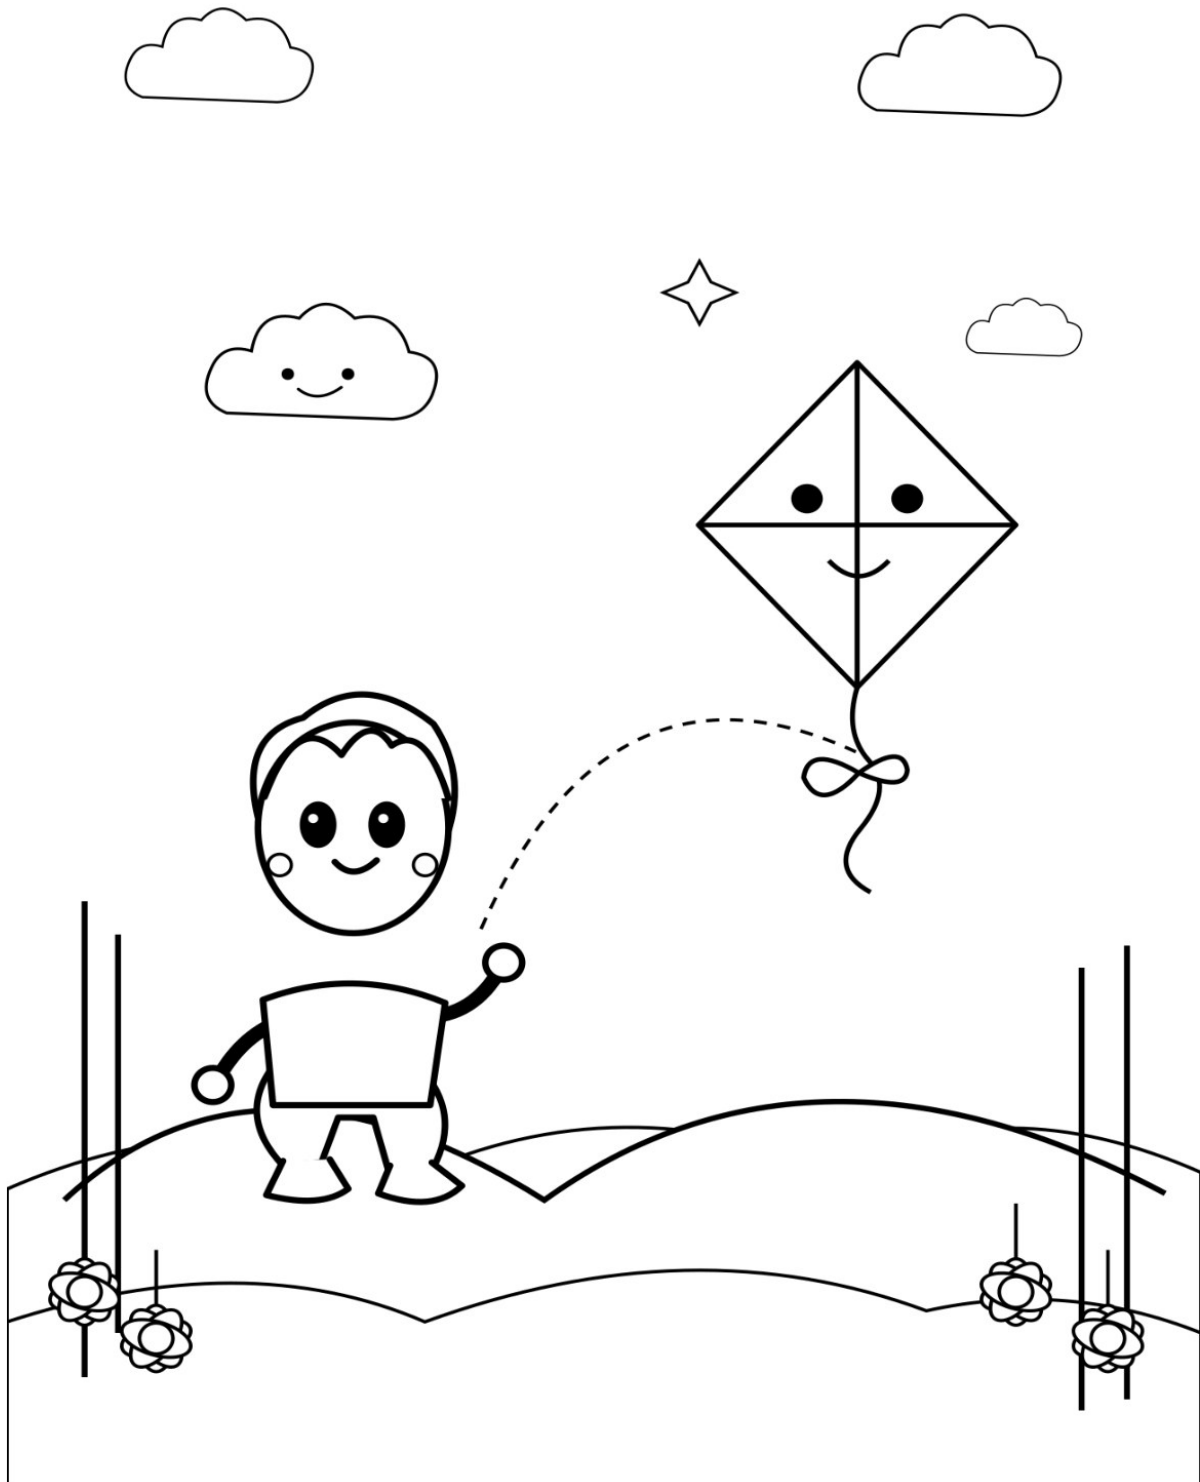

This book belongs to

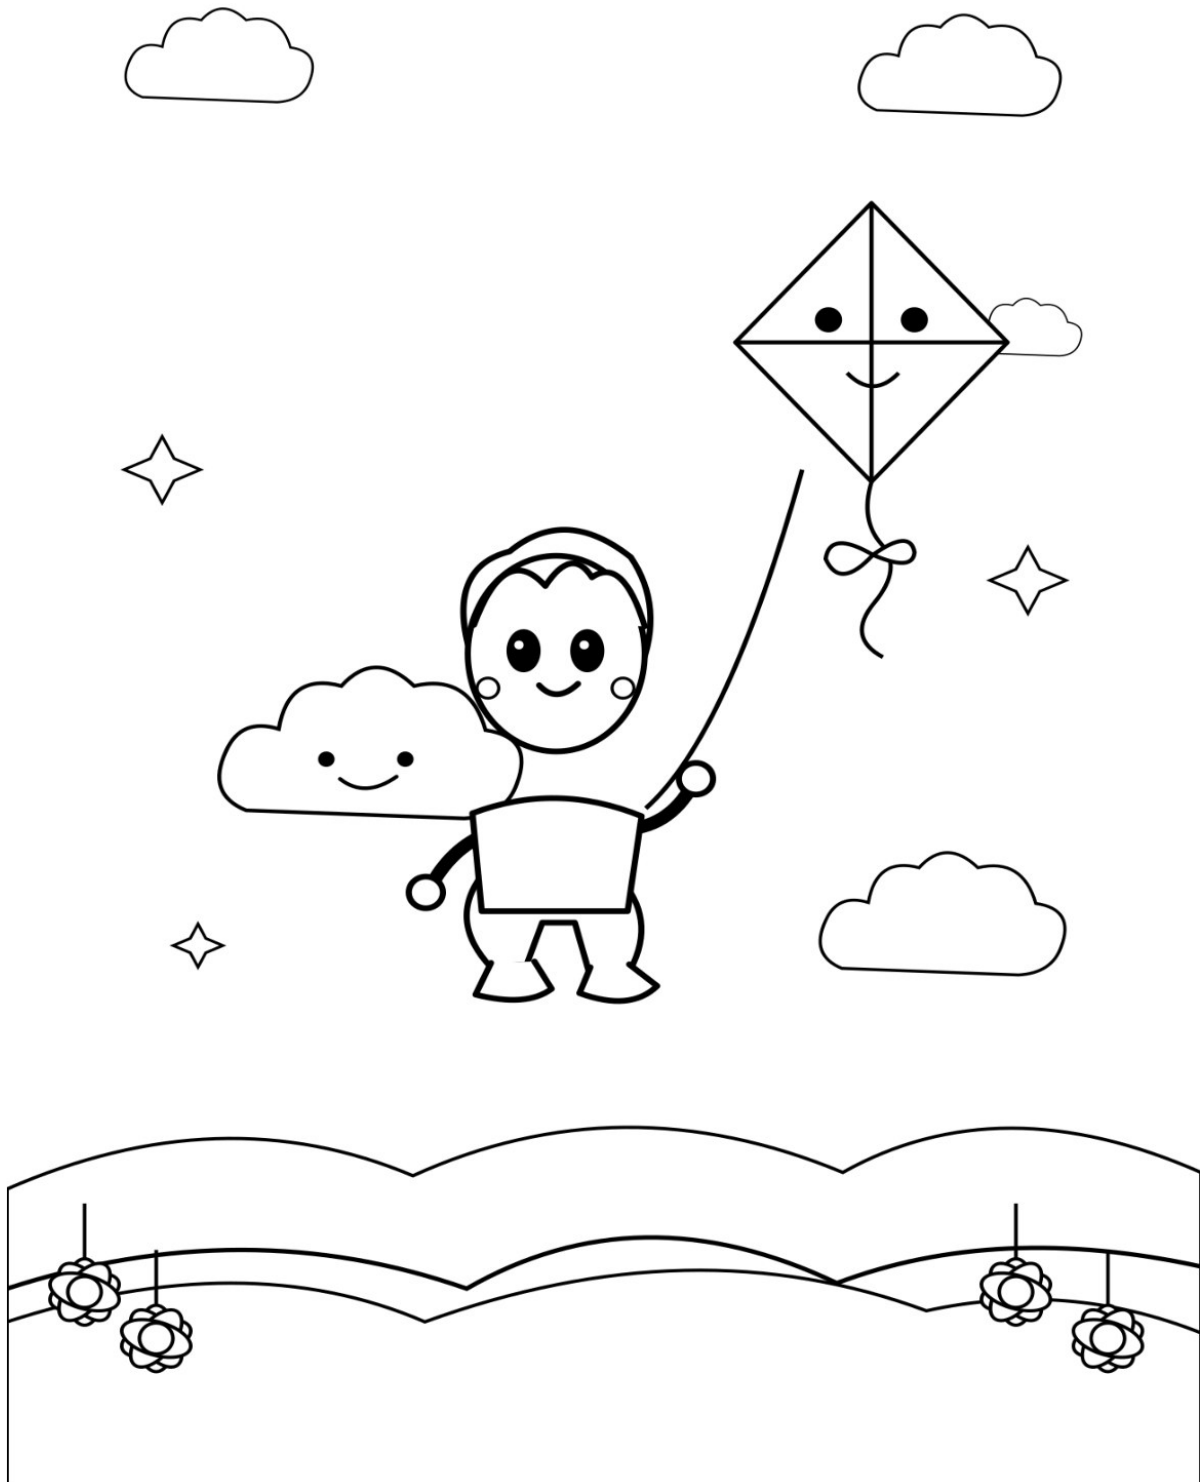

THE MYSTERIOUS KITE

One breezy afternoon, Noah found a kite caught in a tree. Its golden star winked in the sunshine.
A tiny note read: "Hold on tight and follow the wind!"

UP INTO THE CLOUDS

Whoosh! The kite carried Noah high above the rooftops. The clouds looked like castles and fluffy animals. What a wonderful place to explore!

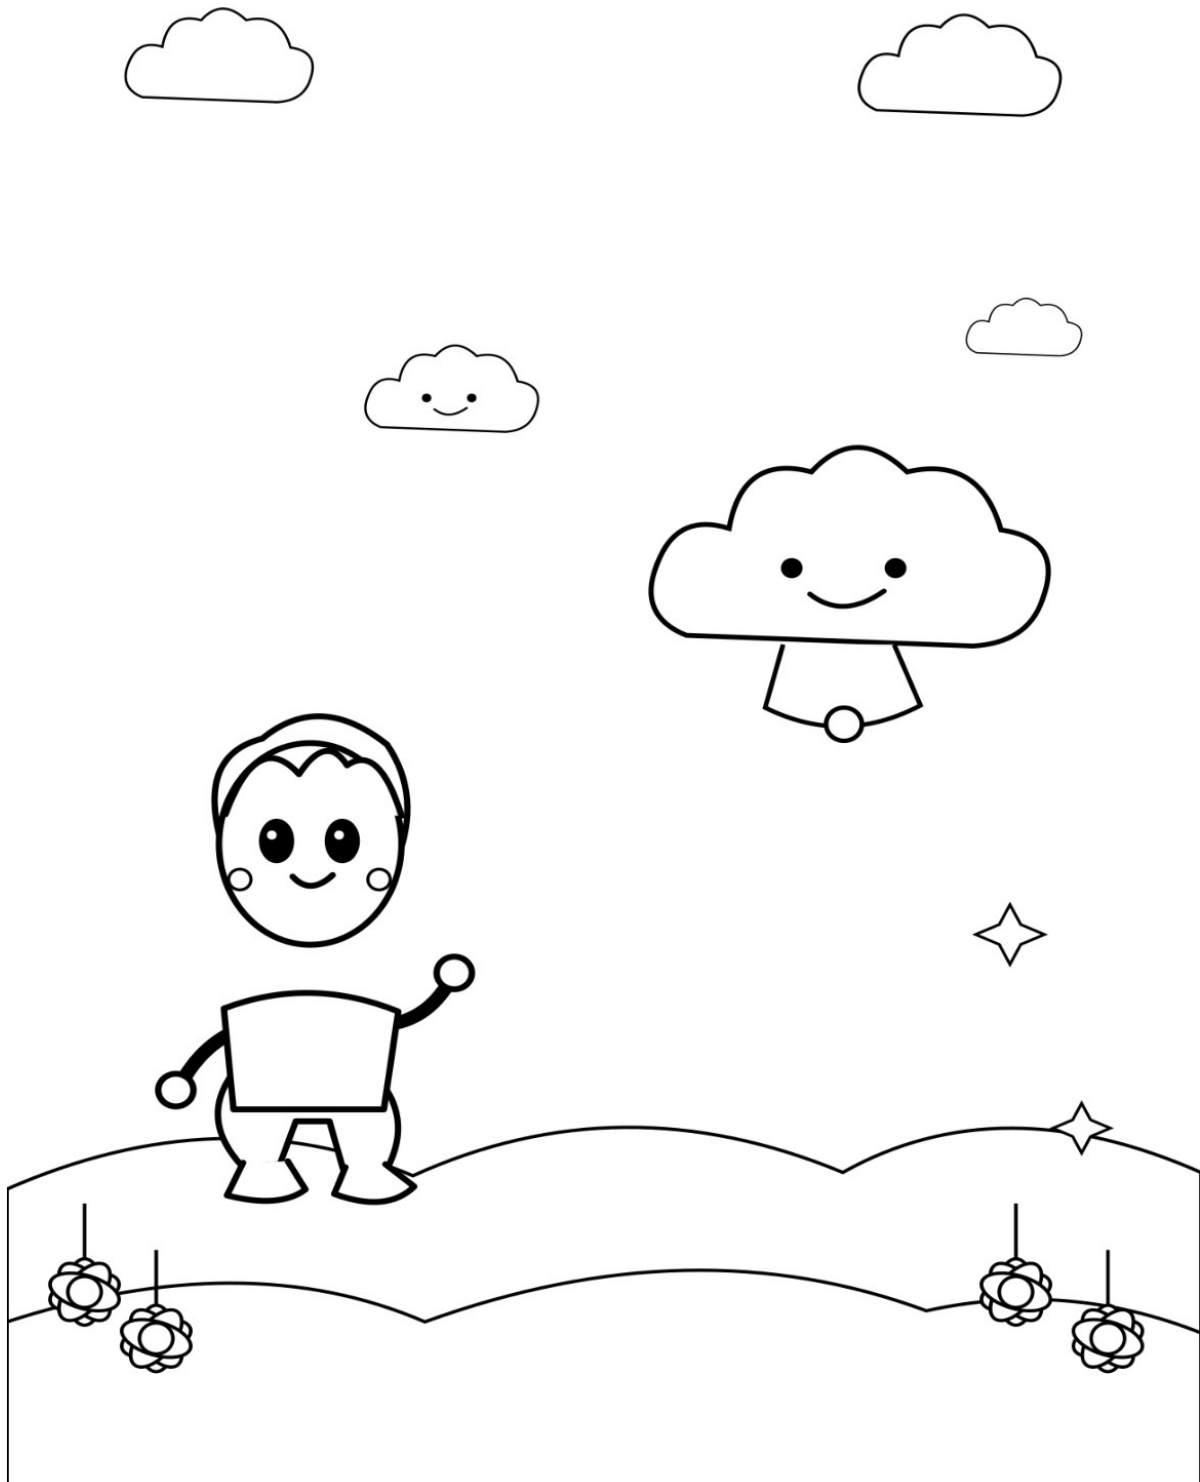

MEET MISTY

A small cloud named Misty was crying. "Our Wind Bell is missing," she said. "Without it, the clouds cannot find their way home!" "I can help," said Noah.

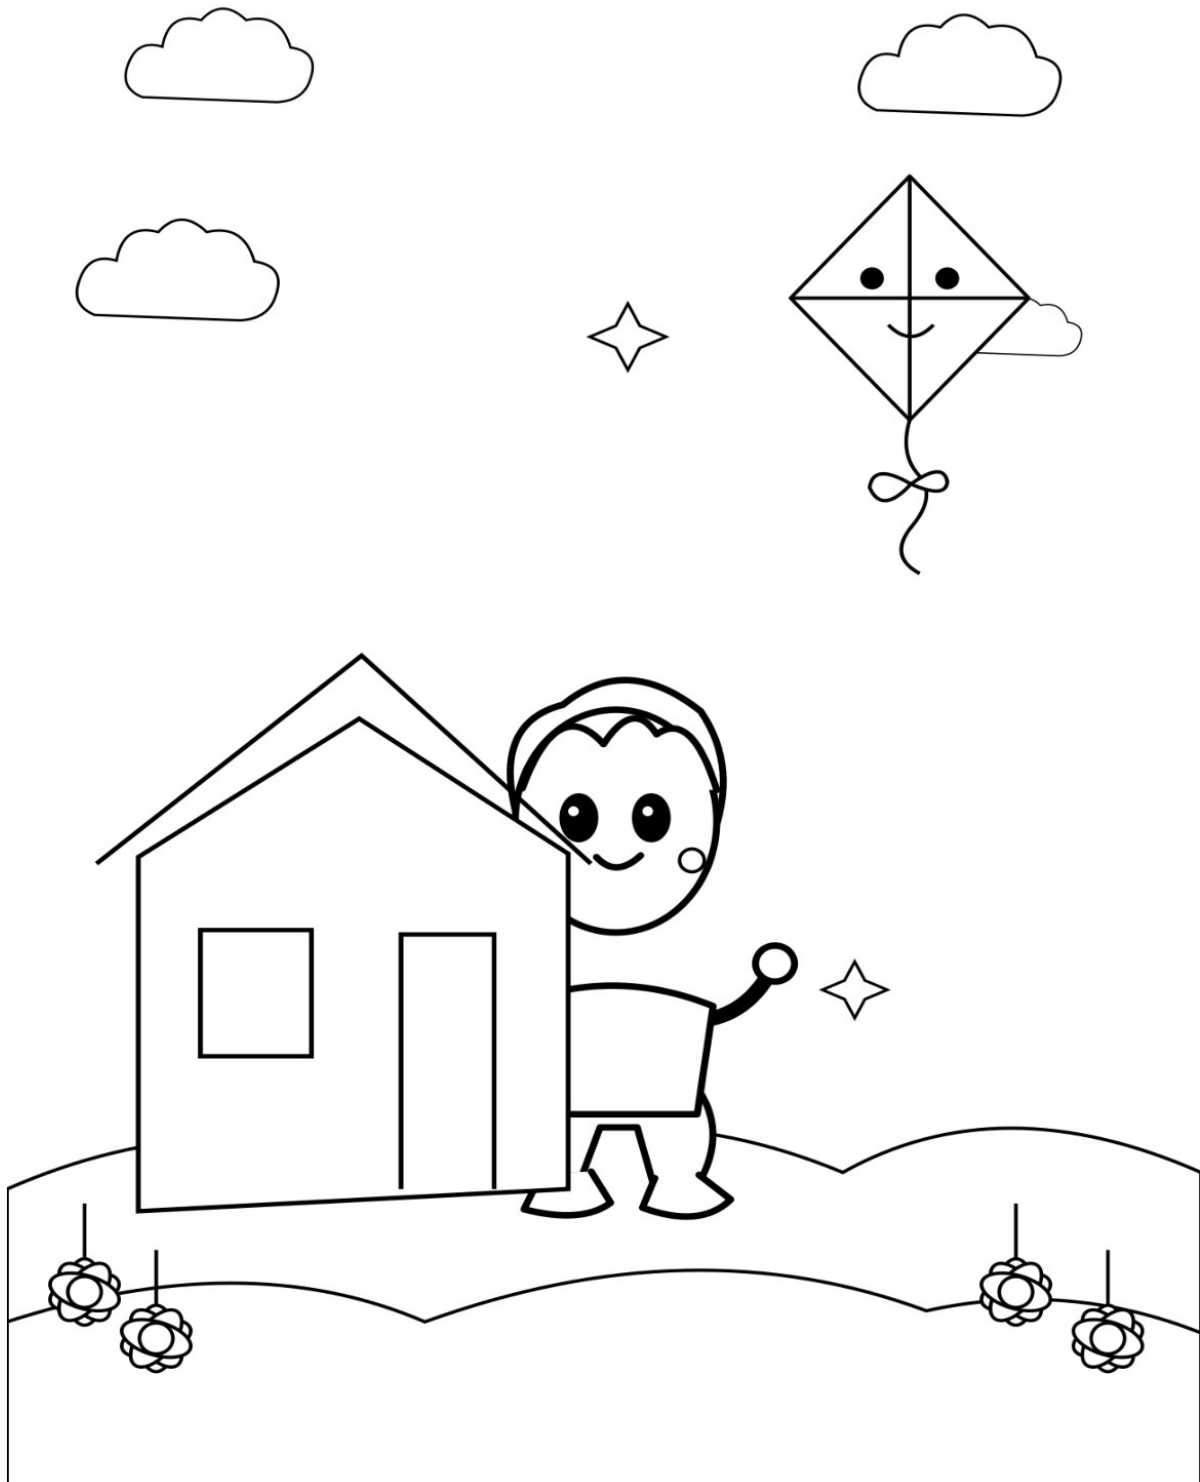

THE LONELY CLOUD

They found the bell beside a gray cloud. "I only wanted someone to notice me," said the cloud.
Noah listened kindly and invited the cloud to help ring the bell.

THE SKY SINGS AGAIN

Ding-ling! The Wind Bell sang. Every cloud floated safely home. Misty smiled and gave Noah a little sky-star badge. "Kindness makes everyone shine!"

A Special Message from OUR STORY

Thank you for being part of OUR STORY!

We created this free coloring book to bring joy,
creativity and imagination to children and families
around the world.

Our mission is to share positive, meaningful stories
and make them accessible to everyone.

This is an AI generated story and illustrations.

It is free for personal use only.

Please do not sell, distribute or use it for commercial purposes.

We hope this story brings a smile to your child's face and inspires many more adventures!

